Sir,

With reference to your letter No 1198 dated 7th February 1902, forwarding for report a petition from Suryanarayanachary, an archick of the Venkataramanaswami Temple at Chick Tirupathi, I have the honor to state that the property of the temple appears to have been kept in the Taluk Treasury at Malur and that only small jewels valued at Rs 16/- have been retained in the Temple.

Though the village is evacuated the Police have been keeping an outpost in the temple premises, and the Amildar reports that a Revenue peon has also been stationed at the place.

There appears to be no necessity of making further arrangements for the safety of the temple valuables.

The enclosure received with your petition is herewith returned

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
